SACRED HEART & ST. CECILIA PARISHES

From the Pastor

Do you make good use of your money and possessions?

Jesus today praises a steward who lost his job for mismanaging the boss's money. When the steward is found out, he comes to reassess his priorities. What's the point of Jesus' parable? The steward is commended for shrewdness.

The original meaning of shrewdness is foresight. A shrewd person grasps a critical situation with resolution and foresight. Jesus is concerned here with something more critical than a financial crisis. His concern is that we avert spiritual crisis through the exercise of faith and foresight. If Christians would only expend as much foresight and energy to spiritual matters which have eternal consequences as much as they do to earthly matters which have temporal consequences, then they would be truly better off, both in this life and in the age to come.

True wealth consists not in what we keep, but in what we give away. We are God's servants and God gave us all that we have. He expects us to make a good return on what He gives us. The Lord expects us to use possessions responsibly: at His service and the service of others. God loves generosity and He gives liberally to those who share His gifts with others.

As Jesus says: No one can serve two masters. Love of money and wealth will leave no room for love of God and neighbor.

May our hearts trust in our abundant and gracious God alone.

Fr Jim

Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time -
September 21, 2025

"No servant can serve two masters.

You cannot serve God and mammon." (Luke 16:13)

A vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life is a call to single-hearted service to God. If you think you have a vocation to one of these, then talk to Fr. Jim or reach out to Fr. Tyler Bandura, Vocations Director at tbandura@dioceseofgreensburg.org.

Thank You for your support of God's work in our Parishes each week!

Your sacrificial gifts go a long way in helping us carry out our Mission to bring the Lord's Good News to Sacred Heart and Saint Cecilia.

Please consider how just a one or two dollar increase per week from every family would help us meet our normal operating expenses.

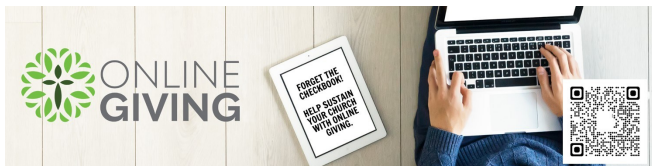

Please take a moment to prayerfully reflect on your current giving; then, with trust in God, challenge yourself and your family to give more.

May God bless you for your generosity!

CLEARANCES:

Especially at this time in the Church, we must do everything we can to see that our children and vulnerable adults are safe.

One way we do this is through the clearance process. Volunteers who attain their clearances - with training for spotting and reporting abuse situations - give our families the assurance that our children and vulnerable adults are in a safe environment.

Please call the Parish Office, at 724-423-3777 or 724-537-7358 to begin the process. Those whose clearances are more than 5 years old are also asked to contact the parish office to do a simple recertification.

Healing Mass
St. Cecilia Church
Monday, September 29:

Christ said to us thru the apostle James:

"Are there people sick among you?"

Let them send for the priests of the Church, and let the priests pray over them anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. The prayer of faith will save the sick persons, and the Lord will raise them up. If they have committed any sins, their sins will be forgiven them."

All are invited to attend Mass with the Anointing of the Sick on Mon, Sept 29, at 6:00pm, at St Cecilia Church.

Everyone is invited to come if you are: suffering from serious or chronic illness of mind or body; facing surgery or a serious medical procedure or testing; experiencing the debilitations and aches & pains of growing old; or limited by any type of mental or physical impairment.

If you are in need of prayer for healing in body, mind or spirit, we encourage you to come.

The Second Collection September 20-21 is for our Annual Mission Cooperative Appeal for the benefit of the missions in the Diocese of Awka, Nigeria.

Fr. Dozie Egbe, will speak to us about the relentless attacks by Boko Haram, which have left countless innocent lives shattered, forcing millions to flee their homes and seek refuge in displacement camps. The widespread destruction of homes and farms have left many without basic necessities like: food, water, shelter, and healthcare. The most vulnerable victims are primarily women and children. Many victims are at the point of giving up hope, and some question where God is.

The Catholic Church in Awka has not abandoned them, though at a great cost, as some of our priests have also been kidnapped.

Resources are scarce due to the escalating crises. We severely need emergency food, shelter and medical care, trauma counseling, and vocational training programs for women and youths whose husbands and fathers were killed.

Your generosity will be a beacon of hope amidst unimaginable suffering. Thank you in advance for your help and your prayers. May God bless you in Multiples. Be assured of our prayers and gratitude.

EVENTS / NEWS AROUND THE DIOCESE

ESTATE PLANNING SEMINAR on Thursday, Sept. 25

A breakfast seminar, “Will and Wisdom: Catholic Perspectives on Estate Planning,” is set for Thursday, September 25, at Ascension Parish, Jeannette, hosted by The Catholic Foundation for the Diocese of Greensburg. Information on leaving a legacy grounded in Catholic values will be presented. The morning will begin with Mass at 8 a.m. There is no charge to attend, but reservations are required by contacting Vicki Meier at 724-552-2503.

The Partner Parishes of St. Martin & St. Joseph, along with The Knights of Columbus will be celebrating their annual BLUE MASS that honors and thanks the men and women who serve their community: Police Officers, Firefighters, Emergency Technicians, Public Safety Professionals, EMS & Local, County and State Officials. It will take place on Tuesday, September 30th at 6:00pm St. Joseph Church in Derry. Reception to follow in the St. Joseph Social Hall. Hosted by the St. Joseph Altar Rosary Society & The Knights of Columbus.

KERYGMA DISCIPLESHIP RETREAT is set for the weekend of October 10-12 at Christ Our Shepherd Center. The three-day retreat is an opportunity for men and women to hear the gospel with new ears, deepen their relationship with Jesus and discover a faith that leads to joyful living. Accommodations and eight meals are included; commuters are welcome. For information and prices, visit DioceseofGreensburg.org/Kerygma.
