SACRED HEART & ST. CECILIA PARISHES

From the Pastor

Jesus meets ten lepers, who beg him for healing. All ten have faith and believe in His healing power. He heals them all and they go seeking a certificate of clean health from the authorities.

Suddenly, one of them stops and goes back. Praising God with a loud voice, he threw himself at Jesus' feet saying: Thank You!

To say Thank you is to realize that you are not the center of your own universe. To say Thank you is to realize that what you are, and what you have, are the results of a goodness and beauty beyond yourself. To say Thank you is the last step of childhood and the first step into adulthood. To say Thank you is the beginning of faith. To say Thank you is to be both humbled and elated that you are so loved.

If we do not recognize and appreciate the mercy shown us, we will be ungrateful. How often have we been ungrateful to our parents, pastors, teachers, and neighbors?

All ten were made well. But only one — the Samaritan — returns. Only a tenth returns to God to express gratitude. Jesus criticizes the nine for failing to return and give God credit for acting through Jesus. The nine also had faith that Jesus could heal them, but they only exploited Jesus for the gift.

All of us have been forgiven, strengthened and healed repeatedly. Do we live lives of thanksgiving by sharing all we have with others in gratitude? Does our gratitude get expressed in our lives, or do we use God for what we want, and then forget all about who God is and what God has done for us?

Fr Jim

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 12, 2025 Deacon Sunday

"And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice;" (Luke 17:15)
Just as the healed man returned to glorify God, deacons are called to bring Christ's healing love to others through their dedicated service to the Church. Today, let us show our gratitude for the deacons that serve our Church. If you are called to the diaconate, consider how you can bring Christ's healing love to others through service. Talk to Fr. Jim or reach out to Fr. Tyler Bandura, Vocations Director at tbandura@dioceseofgreensburg.org.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

United in Prayer with the Missions.

As World Mission Month continues, we are invited not only to give but to pray for the Church in mission territories. One powerful way to do this is by praying the World Mission Rosary, introduced by Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen in 1951. Each decade is a different color, representing a region of the world. In Evangelii Nuntiandi, St. Pope Paul VI reminds us that prayer is the soul of all mission: "It is the Holy Spirit who, today just as at the beginning of the Church, acts in every evangelizer" (75). Through our prayers, we unite ourselves with missionaries bringing the Gospel to the ends of the earth. Let us offer our rosaries and Masses this week for those who bring Christ's love to the margins, often at great personal cost. And let us ask the Holy Spirit to rekindle the fire of hope in our own hearts, that we may also be missionaries, wherever we are.
