Consider Remembering Your Parish in Your Will

From the Pastor

Often, we don't realize the power we can have on the life of another. An ill-considered word of criticism, or a mocking response to another, can tear someone down, while a simple word of encouragement can make someone's day. Even a single unseen act of kindness can have a life-changing effect: to restore hope in someone overwhelmed by despair, to give new life when all seems lost.

Every one of us possesses within ourselves something of both good and bad, of wheat and weed. We all possess the ability to do compassionate and good things out of love - but, at the same time, there exists within us that impulse to selfishness and fear that controls our thoughts and actions.

To be a disciple of Jesus Christ today recognizes this struggle between the "wheat" and "weed" within each one of us and embraces the hope that we may be "wheat" for a world that is often choking in "weeds."

Jesus' parable also clearly speaks to us of a final judgment, where God will judge between the good and the bad. Jesus makes clear that WE are not to judge one another on this earth. - The Pharisees did a lot of judging of their neighbors, and Jesus didn't like that! -- But, in the day of judgment, each will reap what he or she has sown.

Knowing you and I are going to face a final judgment some day, is Good News for us! It tells us that there is still time to change. This is a time of decision, a time to get right with God, the time to give your life to Christ and walk in his ways!

SACRED HEART

Budgeted Weekly Offertory $4,921

July 12 Parish Collection $ *

* The July 12 Collection will be in the July 26 Bulletin.

Please note that the Budgeted Weekly Offering numbers have been updated for the new Fiscal Year beginning July 1, 2026. As you will see, there is a large increase from last year's numbers.

The parish budget for this Fiscal Year is forecasting a significant shortfall. While we are seeing some great savings due to the expenses of the school building being eliminated, we still are experiencing a drop in giving and an increase in other expenses.

Our expenses increase each year most notably in our utilities, maintenance, insurance and health care costs. With our income going down and our expenses going up, the demolition of the school was not enough to keep us out of a deficit.

Therefore, we need your help! Please consider increasing your weekly giving to help us make up this deficit. If everyone can put just a little extra in the basket each week, we can make this up easily.

SAINT SHARBEL MAKHLUF (1828-1898)

The convenience store owner chatted animatedly in Arabic with coworkers, but hardly at all with his "American" clientele. So soon after 9/11, he probably figured, with my accent, the less said, the better. That changed when an "American" customer recognized Saint Sharbel's portrait on the wall: "So you're Lebanese Maronites!" The owner was happily incredulous: "You know our saint?" "Not at first," the customer admitted. "But we help the Catholic Near East Welfare Association, and their magazine published that picture and called Sharbel the 'Paradoxical Artisan of Peace.'" "Everyone thinks we're Muslims," said the owner, "and some of my workers are. Saint Sharbel helps us live together in peace!" A hermit for twenty-three years, little is known of Sharbel's life. He died after suffering a stroke while celebrating the liturgy. Miracles attributed to his intercession number in the thousands, and in war-torn Lebanon, Catholics, Orthodox, and Muslims pray together where his incorrupt body is entombed. How lovely if after our passing, we too could be remembered for having brought very different people to the one God, together in peace. —Peter Scagnelli
