Consider Remembering Your Parish in Your Will

From the Pastor

God has expectations. God has given us the rich vineyard of this world to cultivate. But, we've done a poor job of caring for it.

The vineyard is God's. God owns this world in which we live. We may imagine ourselves as the owners, but we are only renters. And God expects rent from us as a payment for living in God's vineyard. That rent is a moral life. That rent is a righteous life of goodness, kindness and mercy. That rent requires us to share our blessings with others.

Sometimes we fail. We fail to care for our world, or for one another, as we should. We let greed, ignorance and hatred get in the way, and we end up not producing the good fruit the Lord expects of us.

Jesus, our vineyard-owner's son, comes to us with a new vision. It is love rather than greed, compassion rather than ignorance, forgiveness rather than vengeance which will yield the abundant harvest of the Father's vineyard.

This parable tells us of God's generosity. Have you thought about how blessed you are? What do we do with such an abundance of blessings? This parable tells us of God's trust. God trusts us enough to give us freedom to run things as we choose. This parable tells us of God's patience. Not once, but many times God forgives the tenants. But this parable tells us of God's justice. While the tenants take advantage of the owner's patience, God's judgment and justice will prevail.

Jesus warns us of terrible consequences if we let selfishness rule our hearts. But, Jesus promises that we will bear much fruit if we abide in him.

Fr Jim

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 4

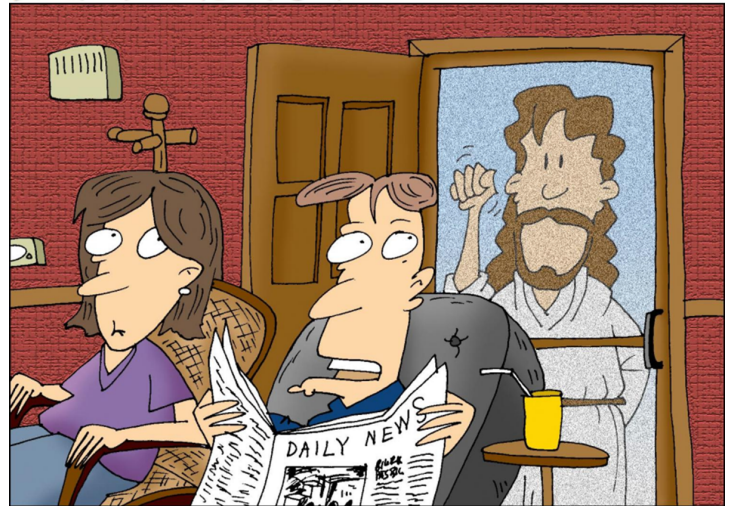

"The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone." (Matthew 21:42)

Jesus, the cornerstone, calls us to build His Church. In holy matrimony, couples become cornerstones of love and faith for a family. Have you talked to your children about their vocation? Pray with them and walk alongside them as they discern how God may be calling them to build up God's Church.

WORD OF LIFE October 4th

"When the angel Gabriel appeared to Mary to tell her that she would conceive and bear a son, Mary responded with her fiat, "May it be done to me according to your word" (Lk 1:38). Mary conceives Christ in her womb, becoming the mother of God, the mother of Jesus. Jesus himself tells us that he is "the way and the truth and the life" (Jn 14:6). In becoming the mother of Jesus, Mary becomes the mother of life. Mary's acceptance in this unforeseen moment demonstrates how each of us must welcome the gift of new human life, even when that gift is unexpected or calls us to make sacrifices."
