Consider Remembering Your Parish in Your Will

From the Pastor

The bible portrays heaven like a wedding celebration given by a King. Everyone loves a party, right? But in Jesus' parable, NO ONE comes! None of the invited can be bothered to show up! How ungrateful! How disrespectful!

In Jesus' story, the most amazing thing happens: the King then invites the undeserving, those who never would have expected getting such an invitation! This is certainly an invitation of grace, an undeserved kindness!

Grace is a free gift, but we must not approach the wedding feast unworthily. As Christians, we are charged with being active and becoming involved. Each of us is responsible for developing and using the gifts God gave us, for giving back, and for responding to the needs of God's Church.

Our lives are, as it were, a garment composed of pieces of fabric that we sew and piece together. This garment is fitted from our religious practices, from how we treat others. How sad, if some of us find ourselves a little threadbare on our way to God's wedding feast.

What are we to make of those who refuse to come? Well, just think: Do you remember when every Catholic went to mass every Sunday? Jesus offers us the most wonderful gift of God's love, but sociologists tell us that, on average, only 20% to 30% of parishioners attend mass each week!

Jesus invites us to share in the joy of God's vision for all people and no excuses are accepted. All of us are invited, and all of us must wear the proper wedding garment of unselfish love, of eagerness to do good for others.

Are you ready to feast at the Lord's banquet table? R.S.V.P. today!

Fr Jim

"Many are invited, but few are chosen."

On Deacon Sunday, we celebrate permanent deacons who respond to God's call to serve His people. Take time to thank a deacon, pray for all who serve the Church in this meaningful way, and encourage men to consider answering God's invitation to the diaconate.

Serving God as an altar server is a wonderful way for a child to grow in the faith. There is a stirring within children that they feel a call to be in God's company and to serve him. In fact, there's nothing more satisfying for a soul, than to serve without expecting anything in return. Let us encourage our children and our adults to become closer to God by serving him at the altar, as do the angels in heaven! Children in 3rd grade and up, and any Adults, that are interested in serving please contact Mary Stoner.

Come and feel the JOY of becoming as ALTAR SERVER!
