Consider Remembering Your Parish in Your Will

From the Pastor

Scripture teaches that, like coins, we have been stamped with God's image, since we are created in God's own likeness. We rightfully belong, not to ourselves, but to God who created us and redeemed us in the precious blood of his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ (1 Cor 6:19-20).

Today in response to a trick question, Jesus says: Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God.

Someone once observed: If we are to give unto God what is God's, and give unto Caesar what is Caesar's, there won't be much left for poor Caesar! Everything comes from God and belongs to God.

What do we owe God?

We owe God service in this world. Rather than just complaining about things and people we don't like, we need to do what we can to make those things better. Whatever we do, whoever we are, Christ has called us to a life of foot washing, a life of service.

We owe God, and other people deserve from us, ethical attitudes and moral behavior. Each person in our lives, even difficult people, is a blessing, a grace. We need to live up to the ideals that we espouse and treat one another with reverence, with care, as God's precious gift.

As long as we live in a culture of Caesars, we need to be realistic enough to give to Caesar what is Caesar's. But let us not allow Caesar to dominate our minds, our hearts, our souls.

Instead, let us take seriously that we are stamped and sealed in the image and spirit of Jesus Christ -- and give to God what rightfully belongs to Him!

Fr Jim

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 18

"Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." (Matthew 22:21)

While we make choices in our daily lives, our ultimate allegiance belongs to God. Every vocation, priesthood, consecrated life, or holy matrimony, invites us to surrender our will to His, offering our lives in loving service. Consider where God is calling you to place His will above your own. Talk to Fr. Jim or reach out to Fr. Tyler Bandura, Vocations Director: tbandura@dioceseofgreensburg.org.

Serving God as an altar server is a wonderful way for a child to grow in the faith.

There is a stirring within children that they feel a call to be in God's company and to serve him. In fact, there's nothing more satisfying for a soul, than to serve without expecting anything in return. Let us encourage our children and our adults to become closer to God by serving him at the altar, as do the angels in heaven! Children in 3rd grade and up, and any Adults, that are interested in serving please contact Mary Stoner.
