Consider Remembering Your Parish in Your Will

From the Pastor

Look carefully at this king portrayed in Jesus' parable today: a king who was hungry and thirsty and naked and ill and in prison. Jesus is telling us about Himself. We hear a story by Jesus about Jesus. He describes himself as: Jesus the hungry, Jesus the thirsty, Jesus the stranger, Jesus the naked, Jesus the sick, Jesus the imprisoned.

Who are his loyal subjects? They are those who give food to the hungry and drink to the thirsty, who welcome strangers and clothe the naked, who comfort the ill and visit prisoners.

Hold up a mirror. Is this us?

In our world today, Christians possess 62% of the world's wealth, yet contribute less than 3% of this wealth to charity. Every day, thousands of children die of starvation and preventable diseases. More than one billion people worldwide live in relentless poverty. Unhappily, the sad truth is that most of God's children are hungry, naked, thirsty, sick, and imprisoned -- representing somewhere between one-half and two-thirds of all God's children.

The standard of the Last Judgment is extremely clear: we have a duty toward the least of our brothers and sisters.

Have we cared for the hungry? Have we given water to the thirsty? What about welcoming the stranger, and giving clothes to those with none and what about visiting people in prison? This is a matter of our eternal salvation!

Hold up a mirror. If this is you, one day you may hear: Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world!

Service of others is service of Jesus. Service of Jesus is recognition of his sovereignty. It is how we live, if Christ is our King.

Fr Jim

Solemnity of Christ the King - November 22

"Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." (Matthew 25:40)

Christ, the King of kings, calls us to serve Him through our care for others. Every vocation, priesthood, consecrated life, or holy matrimony, is an opportunity to answer His call by loving and serving those in need. How is God inviting you to live out this service in your life, bringing Christ's mercy and compassion to the world? Talk to Fr. Jim or reach out to Fr. Tyler Bandura, Vocations Director: tbandura@dioceseofgreensburg.org.
